

ANGEL ISLAND STATE PARK

Civil War Days

&

Artillery Battle

Saturday June 11 & Sunday June 12, 2005
11:00 - 3:30 PM (free activities)

For ferry information call 415-435-2131 or www.angelislandferry.com

Don't forget your binoculars and cameras.

- Come to Camp Reynolds on Angel Island and discover an 1863 recruiting post for Civil War Union troops.
- Watch Civil War Battles, including cannon exchange with the tall ships Royaliste and Aldebaran.
- See "The Battle That Never Was" at about 12:30 on both days.
- Visit with Union & Confederate soldiers.
- Become a Union Recruit for a day and learn about baking army bread, tin punching, flag signaling, rope making, battlefield surgery, laundry, Civil War games and more!

For information

415-435-5390

www.angelisland.org

Enjoy Our First Union Gala

After the Battle on Saturday June 11, stay and enjoy the evening, dancing under the stars
to period (barn-style, 1863) jigs & waltzes.

Beginners lessons from 4:00-5:00pm.

Dancing will continue until 8:30pm.

Ferry to Tiburon departs Ayala Cove at 9:00pm.

Saturday's Gala tickets $20 per person, ferry included.

Call 415-435-5390 for reservations.

Period Dress Admired But Not Required